

HOW TO PROTECT YOURSELF FROM THE LATEST VENMO TRANSACTION SCAM

Venmo and Paypal, amongst other payment apps, have made it easy for individuals to send electronic forms of payment to and from each other. It has also made it easier for scammers to con people out of money. Katya Gozias tells readers this is not something new, in fact it is a continuation of past fraud schemes. Katya adds the only way to not fall into a scammers phishing tactic is to be extra cautious and aware of anything that might be suspicious or too good to be true.
