

DOJ RESTOCKS CONGRESS LIAISON TEAM AS REPUBLICANS CIRCLE

The Department of Justice has reportedly hired several oversight veterans for its Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA) in anticipation of increased scrutiny from Republicans in Congress. Crystal Jezierski suggests in a recent article that the OLA will work to strike a collaborative tone with the House Republican majority that could help the DOJ prevail in a potential contempt of Congress lawsuit.

CRYSTAL JEZIERSKI

Senior Managing Director

Crystal R. Jezierski assists organizations with the design and implementation of global compliance programs; remediation during government enforcement actions; risk assessments; compliance program operations, management, and oversight; compliance training; and conducting internal investigations. She was most recently with the US Chamber of Commerce where she advised on legal and compliance risks including Board of Directors and organizational governance; federal, state, and local campaign finance and lobbying; data privacy; and congressional oversight.