

Guidepost

INTERNATIONAL DATA LAW FORUM

The Cross Border Data Law Association presents its First Annual International Data Law Forum focusing on global data privacy laws and regulations, including data protection, cyber security, information governance and e-discovery. The inaugural conference features a stellar faculty that includes both legal and privacy practitioners, EU Regulators and Data Commissioners and US Judges, as well as networking amongst in-house counsel and private practitioners, including members of the Guidepost Solutions team.