

SCHOOL SAFETY AND SECURITY: THE VALUE OF KNOWING WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW

Nick Heywood offers that an independent security assessment can help school administrators identify what they don't know and empower them to proactively manage security program upgrades and plan for future operational costs.

NICK HEYWOOD PMP

Associate Vice President

Nick Heywood is an experienced security consultant and project manager who excels at performing security and safety assessments and developing existing conditions observations into workable solutions that enhance a facility's security posture. Mr. Heywood has overseen projects in verticals including healthcare, corporate, detention and education.