

(SOME) REASON FOR HOPE ON NYCHA

New York Post

As the Federal Monitor overseeing the New York City Housing Authority, Chairman Bart Schwartz discusses how NYCHA's culture must change from "management by crisis" to a "culture of long-term planning, transparency and accountability."

BART M. SCHWARTZ

Chairman

Described by The New York Times as the person "often sought out in...thorny situations," Bart M. Schwartz is a founder and the chairman of Guidepost Solutions, where he provides compliance, ethics, and integrity monitoring and investigative services. He is a former Chief of the Criminal Division of the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York. For more than 30 years, Mr. Schwartz has managed sensitive and complex matters for a wide array of clients including government agencies, international corporations, and not-for-profits.
