

GUIDEPOST SOLUTIONS BRINGS IN 3 EX- PROSECUTORS TO MONITOR CHANGES AT NYC HOUSING AUTHORITY

Corporate Counsel

Daniel Brownell and Dennis Walsh join the consulting company as senior managing directors and Elan Parra as managing director to work on the monitoring team ensuring that the New York City Housing Authority satisfies conditions of an agreement it made with the attorney general for the Southern District of New York to correct poor housing conditions.

DANIEL BROWNELL

Senior Managing Director

DENNIS WALSH

Senior Managing Director

Dennis M. Walsh is an experienced litigator and former prosecutor with deep experience in monitoring and compliance matters as well as complex investigations. As a judicially appointed "Review Officer," he enforced a Consent Decree and other orders of the District Court in a long-standing civil RICO matter, in which he was given broad authority to monitor, investigate and reform the administration and governance of the New York City District Council of Carpenters, its Taft-Hartley Benefit Funds and its affiliated local unions, with more than 20,000 members. Mr. Walsh served as an Assistant Deputy Attorney General with the New York State Attorney General's Organized Crime Task Force, where he investigated La Cosa Nostra racketeering involving labor unions.
