

STATE OF PLAY IN U.S. IMMIGRATION LAW: ADJUDICATORY AND ENFORCEMENT TRENDS

Julie Myers Wood will join a panel discussion with industry-leading immigration lawyers and in-house experts on the top issues employers should focus on to attract and retain international executives and professionals, well as immigration-related investigation and enforcement issues impacting business.

Topics will include:

- How to prepare for immigration policy changes in the Biden Administration's regulatory agenda.
- What impact new vaccination requirements will have for travelers to the United States.
- When will Department of State consulates return to normal to more effectively facilitate international transfers?
- How USCIS is reversing Trump Administration policies and those changes' impact on your foreign national workers.
- With Immigration and Customs enforcement on the rise, how to prepare for government audits and investigations.

This session is designed for in-house counsel, executives, compliance officers, hiring managers, and HR professionals.

JULIE MYERS WOOD

Chief Executive Officer

As the Chief Executive Officer of Guidepost Solutions, I focus on helping corporations resolve problems with government agencies, and ensure they are proactively addressing compliance requirements. Prior to joining the private sector, I held leadership positions with the U.S. Departments of Homeland Security, Commerce, Treasury and Justice. This includes serving as the Head of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Homeland Security's largest investigative component, as well as the Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement and the Chief of Staff for the Criminal Division at the Department of Justice. Throughout my government and private sector career, I have helped develop, implement and execute compliance programs and crisis management plans and responses across a wide range of industries for numerous companies. I am nationally recognized as a speaker for my expertise on compliance, security, immigration and other law enforcement issues and have testified before Congress.
